DEMO / CLASS / WORKSHOP

"Sketchbook Journaling: NO rules, NO fancy supplies, NO pressure!"
Free Artist Demo by Marni Maree

Date: Friday Nov. 20
Time: 11am - 12noon
Place: McLean Community Center
Free and open to the public

Marni Maree is a watercolor artist who loves to keep a sketchbook. She loves to paint, teach and travel all at the same time! She has led numerous overseas Creative Sketching Workshops in France, Italy, New Zealand, South Africa, Colombia and there are more being planned.

With all of this experience she knows how to travel light! Marni will show how simple sketchbook journaling can be. During her demonstration, Marni will walk us through her compact "go kit," to show us how few tools she needs to sketchbook journal when she's out drawing or traveling. She'll also demonstrate her quick sketch approach for capturing moments in real time.

Marni will show us how to transform a page of "eh" drawings into something that's pretty amazing using just a handful of thoughtful touches.

Bring a thin-tip drawing pen if you'd like to create a sketchbook page of your own, discovering easy techniques that can elevate even the simplest drawing.
